4-10 December

PRAYER DIARY

- Pray we would make the most of every opportunity to invite those we know to Carols by Candlelight: from friends, to postmen, to hairdressers. Pray for those we invite- that they may say yes and that people will turn to Christ.

- Beth Baalbergen returns to Sydney after her brief visit back to the UK for visa renewal and visiting family and friends - pray for her travel and readjustment. Praise God for the ways He's been teaching the whole family this year in life at college, home and church.

TUESDAY 5

- Ben Cooper is teaching this week on the Tengir Bible Training course in the Middle East; pray for him as he opens up 1 Timothy with these believers whose churches back home face police harassment, asking that they stay strong in the Lord.

- As the university term draws to an end, pray that the students would prioritise coming to small groups today (the last Bible study of the term) and Sunday services, at a time when many assignments are due.

WEDNESDAY 6

- Thank God for those cleaning and decorating the church building and centre in preparation for Carols by Candlelight and Christmas in order to provide a welcoming atmosphere for guests.

- The December Church Family Prayer meeting is this evening. Pray for the Christmas and New Year plans we'll be laying before the Lord, asking him to make this a time of faithful and effective service.

THURSDAY 7

- Pray for Paul Williams speaking at the University of Newcastle Christian Union's evangelistic lunch bar today on 'Why doesn't God show himself'; and also at Christ Church Durham this evening speaking to students about the Doncaster church plant.

- Pray for the persecuted church in Saudi Arabia where the church meets in secret. Pray for opportunities for Saudi believers to share their faith with their families, and for them to be open to the gospel.

FRIDAY 8

- Pray for the children and youth groups here this evening, that the team would be Christ-like as they lead so that the young people may be drawn to the gospel through their example and teaching.

- Thank God for the many musicians who are involved in the Carols by Candlelight services; pray that the last rehearsal this evening would go well and that they would feel prepared and confident.

SATURDAY 9

- Pray for Men Behaving Dadly

meeting this morning, that it would be a great chance for men to meet and encourage one another.

- Pray for the Mandarin Fellowship meeting tomorrow, for encouragement as they study the Bible together.

SUNDAY 10

- Pray for Pete Scamman preaching in the morning service today. In the evening are the first two Carols by Candlelight services, at 4 and 6pm. Pray for Paul Williams as he speaks, that God's Word would speak to people and that they would respond to what they hear.

-Please pray for the Ministry Partnership Team taking the service this evening at Richmond W R C with Carey Harmer, visiting preacher, Kieron Ellis leading, Mike and Judy McKendrick assisting.

If you would like to talk to Peter Collier (Pastoral Care Coordinator) about being included in these prayer notes please contact him on 07896 059484
