PRAYER DIARY

MONDAY 8

- Many of the regular weekday activities begin again this week after the Christmas break, including today the monthly Morning Coffee group; pray that many people of all ages will find the Lord to be their strength here in the coming months.

-Pray for the members of the Vicar's Council meeting tonight, asking that our church family will always be led in God's ways.

TUESDAY 9

- Pray for each of the children attending K-motion, as it starts back today. Pray that the good news of Jesus will be understood and believed.

- As the Latin Link UK team in Reading move temporarily out of their offices for refurbishment, pray for our mission partner Andrew Johnson as he oversees the building work and ensures that the daily work of supporting missionaries to and from South and Central America continues uninterrupted.

WEDNESDAY 10

- Pray for responses to advertising for the vacant youth worker post– asking God to supply a gifted and godly worker to join the staff team.

- Pray that as we plan to read the Bible more this year, we would do so not out of guilt but with a desire to know the Lord better.

THURSDAY 11

- As Helen Atkinson returns to Netherside Hall, and Lani Wroe joins her on the Yorkshire Camps gap team there, pray for them both and for the Peace family and other team members - to stay healthy, work well together, and see the Holy Spirit at work in the lives of the children who come to stay.

- Pray for the new Junior Jivers groups starting today that the children would have lots of fun and there would be friendships being made across families.

FRIDAY 12

- Pray for Tim Cudmore, Fiona Lockwood and Rachel Field as they meet for a Building for the Future regular review and planning meeting today. Pray that the project would continue moving forward with out delay.

- Usual Friday groups re-start today with New Mums and Friday Club in the morning and children's and youth groups in the evening. Pray that in all these activities, Christ would be made known.

SATURDAY 13

-The student team have a brunch this morning, pray for them as they prepare for the leading student Bible studies in the semester ahead.

-Pray for those leading groups on the next Christianity Explored course as they have training today; that they would be equipped to help people understand the gospel.

SUNDAY 14

.Pray for Paul Williams and Ben Cooper as they preach today; and for those involved in the children's groups. Pray that we would be obedient to God's word.

- Please pray for the Ministry Partnership Team taking the service this afternoon at Tapton Hill Congregational; with Jon Pottinger preaching, Fred Holmes leading and Claire Toplis assisting.

If you would like to talk to Peter Collier (Pastoral Care Coordinator) about being included in these prayer notes please contact him on 07896 059484
