PRAYER DIARY

MONDAY 10

The 2nd and 3rd year university students have their retreat this week. Pray that it would be an inspiring start to the new academic year as they study 2 Peter and spend time together.

The pre-school groups start this week, pray that many families would be reached through this ministry.

TUESDAY 11

New gap teams arrive and start training later this week at The Oakes and Yorkshire Camps, including Elle Waters and Rebekah Bennett; pray that they will all settle in quickly and work together to share the gospel this year.

WEDNESDAY 12

Most small groups start this week, pray that these be places where people are growing together to Christian maturity.

Pray for our school leavers, as many are preparing to head off to university in the coming weeks. Pray that they would continue walking closely with the Lord as they learn to live independently from home, but dependently on Jesus.

THURSDAY 13

As our mission partner Rachel Olney returns today to Vienna. Give thanks for her brief time in Sheffield and pray that a gathering of evangelists on Saturday will be used by God as a catalyst for the witness of His people in Austria.

FRIDAY 14

Pray for the persecuted church in China— communist authorities are increasing restrictions on Christians in order to control society and stay in power. Pray that Christians would stand strong as religious restrictions are tightened.

SATURDAY 15

New students arrive in Sheffield over the weekend, pray for Christian students that they will be bold in standing out as Christians from the beginning. Pray that as a church family we would welcome the new students well.

SUNDAY 16

As we gather together today, pray for Pete Scamman preaching in the morning and Paul Williams in the evening and those leading children's groups as they adjust to the new format of the groups. Pray that we would be encouraged to live whole-heartedly for the gospel.

Please pray for the Ministry Partnership Team taking the service this evening at St. Mary's Wesleyan Reform Church with Mark Haughton preaching, Geoff Wilson leading and Sarah Groom assisting.
